

Five New AdCom Members Elected for 2011–2012

In November balloting, Jake Baker, Franz Dielacher, Tohru Furuyama, Peter Kinget, and Stefan Rusu were elected to serve on the SSCS AdCom from 1 January 2011 through 31 December 2012.

All Society members except students were eligible to vote.

One-third of the 15-member Administrative Committee are elected by the membership every fall. The Society Nominations Committee is chaired by SSCS Past-President Willy Sansen.

Jake Baker

Tohru Furuyama

Franz Dielacher

Peter Kinget

Stefan Rusu

Digital Object Identifier 10.1109/MSSC.2010.938317

IEEE JSSC Ranked 11th Among 245 Publications Electrical and Electronic Engineering in 2009

IEEE Journal of Solid-State Circuits (JSSC) ranked 11th among 245 top publications in electronic and electrical engineering, along with 15 other IEEE periodicals rated among the top 20 in 2009 by Journal Citation Reports (JCR).

JCR is an annual publication of the Healthcare and Science division of Thomson Reuters that measures research influence by showing the relationship among journals by compiling articles' cited references.

Digital Object Identifier 10.1109/MSSC.2010.938318

The company, founded in London in 1799, according to its Web site, is named for Paul Julius Reuter, who turned it into a pan-European news and stock price information service in the middle of the 19th century with a combination of technology including telegraph cables, a fleet of carrier pigeons, and the new Dover-Calais submarine telegraph cable that helped Reuter establish a reputation for speed, accuracy, integrity, and impartiality.

According to JCR, the top 20 journals in engineering, electrical, and electronic engineering are

1) IEEE Signal Processing Magazine